Dear PayHere Compliance & Partner Bank Review Team,

I am writing in formal response to your merchant application review regarding our online boutique portal, <https://azhaiclothing.lk>. In accordance with your requirements, we hereby confirm that Azhai Clothing operates as a genuine boutique atelier with active physical inventory, in-house tailoring operations, and direct courier dispatch based in Colombo, Sri Lanka.

Please accept this formal confirmation regarding our product stock and business operations:

- 1. Product Availability & Physical Stock: All ready-to-wear handloom silk kurti ensembles, festive organza sarees, dupattas, and tailoring fabrics listed on our website are physically stocked at our atelier and workshop in Colombo, Sri Lanka. We do not operate drop-shipping or third-party intermediary models.
- 2. Bespoke & Custom Tailoring Capacity: For bespoke orders submitted via our Tailoring Studio, items are tailored on-demand by our in-house seamstresses using our stocked raw handloom silks within a standard crafting turnaround of 3 to 7 business days prior to dispatch.
- 3. Courier Fulfillment & Island-Wide Delivery: All orders are personally inspected, packed in signature protective Azhai boutique boxes with original atelier branding tags, and dispatched across all 25 districts of Sri Lanka via registered postal and domestic courier partners (including Sri Lanka Post Speed Post).
- 4. Website & Mandatory Policy Compliance: Our e-commerce portal is fully live and complete with zero dummy content. In strict compliance with partner bank standards, our Returns & Refund Policy explicitly states: "All approved refunds will be credited back directly to the original payment method / payment initiated media itself from which the transaction was placed within 5 to 7 business days."
- 5. Supporting Proof of Stock: Attached alongside this letter are photographic records demonstrating our current stock of handloom silks, finished ensembles with brand tags, tailoring workshop facilities, and packaging materials.

We kindly request the partner bank to proceed with the final review and activation of our PayHere merchant account under the Home Based (Not Registered) / Individual Boutique category for <https://azhaiclothing.lk>.

Yours faithfully,

Yayathi / Preethi
